Rules Comments

I am a bankruptcy attorney practicing in the Central District of California.

I have the following comments to the proposed rule changes:

1. Rule 3001: I feel it is imperative that all proof of claims should include evidence of the debt in the form of the last statement. Furthermore, I think that any claim by a creditor must include a copy of the debtor's signature to the original card agreement. Far too often my clients are being held for debt that was incurred by a parent who merely gave them an additional card to use for the benefit of an elderly parent.
2. Rule 3002.1: It is my opinion that the holder of a mortgage must provide to the debtor and the debtor's counsel statement of all charges and fees. It is very difficult to object to a claim without an itemization of what the charges are for.

Respectfully submitted,
