Note: These figures include the following cases not reflected elsewhere:

Note: These figures include the following cases not reflected elsewhere:

Note: These figures include the following cases not reflected elsewhere:
