

comment on rules

Howard Iken o Rules_Comments

02/10/2010 02:23 PM

Please accept my comment on proposed changes to Bankruptcy Rules 3001 and 3002.

I am in support of the proposed changes. In my personal experience, I have seen frequent abuses by creditors. I believe proof of claims should include competent evidence such as a last account statement. Creditors tend to falsify records and this measure would prevent that abuse.

On the changes regarding mortgage lenders, I think it would be fair play to require proper notice of any material changes in payments and fees.

Thanks

Attorney Howard Iken
1-800-469-3486

www.ForMyDivorce.com
www.MyFloridaLaw.com
www.ForMyDefense.com
www.ForMyDebtRelief.com

The information contained in this electronic communication is subject to the attorney-client, work product, or other applicable privilege, is confidential, and is intended only for use by the individual or entity named above. If the reader of this message is not the intended recipient or the employee or agent responsible for delivering the message to the intended recipient, please be advised that any dissemination, distribution, copying or use of this communication is strictly prohibited.

Our law firm's policy is to prosecute all intentional violations of this privilege.

To ensure compliance with Treasury Department regulations, we advise you that, unless otherwise expressly indicated, any tax advice contained in this communication (including any attachments) was not intended or written to be used, and cannot be used, for the purpose of (i) avoiding tax-related penalties under the Internal Revenue Code or applicable state or local tax law provisions or (ii) promoting, marketing or recommending to another party any tax-related matters addressed herein.