

Worksheet

Use this worksheet and answer key as a discussion guide for J.D.B. v. North Carolina and the fictional scenario of People v. Brandon Salinger

Note to Teachers: Use this chart to help students identify the factors that courts might take into consideration in each case to determine if someone is in custody and, therefore, should receive a Mirandawarning.

Discussion Guide: Were They in Custody?	J.D.B. v. North Carolina	People v. Brandon Salinger
Language Used to Summon the Individual
Confrontation with Evidence of Guilt
Physical Surroundings/Location
Duration
Degree of Pressure Applied (physical or otherwise)
Other Factors
Totality of the Circumstances: In Custody or Not?		